

Stars shine bright at Charleston

17 acts take part in talent show

Seventeen acts performed during the Charleston AFB Talent show Friday at the Charleston Club. Four hundred people attended the event, which was sponsored by the African American Heritage Council and 437th Services Squadron.

MC for the evening was local radio personality DD Cooper.

The performers displayed a wide variety of talent, from tap dancing to playing instruments and singing.

LaChan Hall was crowned champion for her rendition of the Debra Cox hit song "Nobody's Supposed to be Here." Her prize included a $150 check and a 1st place trophy.

Second place, a $100 check, was awarded to the duet of Shantil Hudson and Dawanna Price, who performed the Brandy and Monica song, "The Boy is Mine."

A $75 check was awarded to the third place finishers, Qiana Gadson and Misty Gadney, who sang the Zane hit "He Doesn't Know."

The event raised approximately $2000, which was donated to the Jenkin's Orphanage. Judges for the event were Maj. Brian Blankenship, Maj. Anthony Williams, Capt. Christopher Wyckoff, Cindy Fowler and Deneen Copeland.

photos by Senior Airman Jerome Suson

LaChan Hall sings "Nobody's Supposed to be Here." Hall placed first in the AAHC/Services sponsored talent show.

(right) Jim Feiste performs his rendition of "Minni's Black Rat Swing."

(above) The DeKanibles get the crowd worked up during their version of the Billy Idol hit "Mony, Mony."

(right) Dawanna Price (left) and Shauntil Hudson "fight" over Brett Diaz as they perform the Brandy and Monica duet "The Boy is Mine."

(below) Eddie Frison sings Peabo Bryson's hit "Can you stop the Rain."

(left) Lindsey Kingery skows off her skill as a tap dancer.